Different Ways of Donating 02

We can help our community in many ways. One good way is to donate. Donating doesn't mean just giving money. You can also donate your time, things, or talents.

Donating Your Time

You can use your time to help others. You can read books to kids at a community library. You can also help clean up the park in your neighborhood.

▲ Ben and Leo pick up trash in the park on Saturdays.

▲ Jane's family is gathering things to donate.

Donating Your Things

Do you have something you don't need anymore? You can donate it to the community center to help others in need. For example, your old jacket can keep someone warm in winter. Old books or toys can make younger children happy.

Donating Your Talents

Are you good at drawing, singing, or making things? Share your talent with others! You can sing a song or make crafts for people in the hospital to cheer them up. You can also bake cookies and share them with your neighbors.

B Read the story. Then think about how Tom feels about Mr. Lee.

A Mystery Man in Sunnybrook

Tom lives in a small town called Sunnybrook. An old man, Mr. Lee, lives behind his house. Mr. Lee never smiles or talks. He always looks serious. Tom is scared of him.

One day, Tom hears a whistling sound while walking down the street. He follows it, and there he finds an old, empty garden. In the garden, Tom sees Mr. Lee! He is planting and watering flowers. He looks happy. Tom thinks, "Maybe he isn't a scary person."

Tom walks to him and says, "Hi, your flowers are pretty!"

Mr. Lee smiles and says, "Thank you. No one takes care of this garden, so I decide to help with it."

After that, Tom visits the garden many times and Mr. Lee teaches him how to take care of the flowers. Soon, they become friends and make a beautiful garden together.
