1 READING

A Read the blog post. Then check (✓) the best title.

- 1 Preparing for an interview? ☐
- 2 Getting the job you want! ☐
- 3 Dress for success! ☐

The screenshot shows a web browser window with a blog post. The browser has three tabs: 'Blog', 'Share', and 'Comment'. The 'Blog' tab is active. The blog post text is as follows:

You've finally gotten the interview you've wanted for months. Now you're busy preparing for the interview. You've researched the company and thought about the questions you want to ask.

What else is there? What you're going to wear. The way you look is very important. At the end of the interview, you want people to be talking about your experience, not your appearance.

What should you wear? Suits and ties for guys, and dresses for women? That's not always necessary. It depends on the type of job you're applying for.

Is it a job in the computer industry? You might not need a suit or a dress, but that doesn't mean you can go in a T-shirt and jeans. You need to look like you're going to work, not out for dinner with friends. So, guys, put on a traditional shirt and casual pants. And, women, a modest sweater or blouse with a skirt or pants will be fine.

If you're interviewing for a finance job, you need to wear what people in the business world wear. That means a suit and tie for men and dresses or suits for women.

Dress for the job you want. Make sure your clothes are clean and ironed. Avoid wearing perfume or cologne, and don't wear too much makeup or jewelry.

Remember: If after the interview people are talking about your appearance, you probably won't hear from them again. So dress right and look good. Your career may depend on it.

B READ FOR GIST Complete the statements. Use the phrases in the box.

buy clothes	get a job	goes to a lot of job interviews
has interviewed people	interview people	is going to go to a job interview
