READING

1 Read an interview with Tom, a British man who is working as a ninja in Japan. Match questions a–g with gaps 1–6. There is one question you don't need.

- a Is it difficult to become a ninja?
- b What is a ninja?
- c Is there anything you don't like about the job?
- d What's your daily routine like?
- e What special clothes do ninjas wear?
- f What do you enjoy the most about your job?
- g What does a professional ninja do nowadays?

(1)

Ninjas are traditional fighters in Japan. They usually fight using their hands. They also use high jumps and kicks, so they're very fit. There aren't any real ninjas now, but people still learn the skills because ninjas are important in Japanese culture.

(2)

Some towns and cities in Japan employ ninjas because tourists like them. The ninjas put on shows of their skills in the streets. They also talk to tourists about the ninja traditions. Tourists also love taking photos of themselves with a ninja!

(3)

Yes, it is. You have to be very fit, and you have to practise a lot to learn all the skills. You also need a good memory, because you need to learn about the history of ninjas and why they're important in Japanese culture.

(4)

I get up early and have a light breakfast. Then I practise my skills for two hours. I often practise with other ninjas, which is fun. Then at 10.30 I start work in the city centre. We do four or five shows a day, so it's quite tiring. Then in the evenings I usually work out for an hour, because you need to be strong to be a ninja. So there isn't much time for hanging out with friends!

(5)

Everything! I really like learning the ninja skills. You feel so good when you manage to do something new. At the moment I'm trying to learn a really difficult move, and I love that challenge. I also enjoy talking to the tourists, especially the kids. They're funny because they always want to fight me!

(6)

Yes, I hate the fact that I can't have chips or chocolate! Ninjas have to be small and not very heavy, so I'm very careful about what I eat. But it's worth it so I can do a job that I love.

2 Read the text again. Decide if the sentences are true or false.

- 1 There are still a few real ninjas in Japan.
- 2 Modern ninjas work to entertain tourists.
- 3 You have to learn skills and study to become a ninja.
- 4 Tom spends a lot of time relaxing with friends.
- 5 Tom finds children annoying when he's working.
- 6 Tom can't eat all the things he would like to eat.

3 Match the highlighted words and phrases in the text with the meanings.

- 1 I get something from it, even though it's difficult.
- 2 give someone a job
- 3 with not much food
- 4 belonging to the past and the culture of a country
- 5 something that is difficult to do or learn
- 6 the way of life and beliefs that the people of a country share
