Reading

WHAT'S ON THIS WEEK?

A Alan Carr: Chatty Man

This is Alan's 100th show! Justin Timberlake talks about his new film and sings Take Back the Night. Olympic gold-medalist Mo Farah is also on the show, and there's more music from superstar Rihanna.

Channel 6, Friday 10 pm

B David Attenborough's Animal History

In his new series Attenborough looks at the history of vertebrates. In this episode he explains the evolution of mammals in the past 500 million years.

Channel 2, Friday 9 pm

C The Three-Day Nanny

A new programme with professional nanny Kathryn Mewes. In this episode she visits the Woods family. Parents Sam and Jason have big problems with the bad behaviour of their four-year-old triplets, but they don't agree about discipline. Can Kathryn help?

Channel 4, Tuesday 8 pm

D Happy Feet

Classic Disney for kids (and parents!). Mumble is a young penguin. He can't sing but he is good at dancing. The adult penguins don't accept Mumble's behaviour and tell him to leave the penguin colony. This is the start of a fantastic journey for the little penguin.

Channel 3, Saturday 5.45 pm

E Outnumbered

More from the lives of the Brockman family. Parents Sue and Pete decide to ban TV and computers on Sunday, so the family can have 'quality time' to play Monopoly and card games. This is NOT popular with the kids! This is the last episode in the funny series.

Channel 1, Wednesday 8.30 pm

Reviews

Send us a review of your favourite TV programme and win some DVDs!

My favourite programme is The Fresh Prince of Bel Air. It's a comedy about a teenager called Will (Will Smith). He is often in trouble 'so/ because' his mum sends him to live with his rich uncle Phil in California. Will is different from his cousins 'so / because' he's from a poor area of Philadelphia, and his character is funny and clever.

The show is quite old, from the 90s, but I like it 'so / because' the acting and stories are really good. Will and his cousin, Carlton (Alfonso Ribeiro), always do silly things 'so / because' Uncle Phil gets angry. This is classic comedy and it's great!
