Whittier, Alaska, USA

Whittier is an unusual town because all its residents (around 200 people) live in the same building. There isn't a mall in Whittier, but there is a small grocery store there. In the building, you can also find a hotel, a restaurant, and a school. You get to the school through a tunnel under the ground. Why? Because it's very cold in Alaska! Read more

Thames Town, China

The River Thames is in England, so Thames Town is an English town, right? No, that's wrong. It is in China, near Shanghai, but the streets and stores look English. The street names are also in English: Oxford Street, Chelsea Street. There are red telephone boxes on the streets, and you can see a statue of Harry Potter Read more
