What are you doing this weekend? My friends and I are all busy doing different things this weekend. Heath is blogging about his new cat. The cat is so cute, but very difficult to look after! Vanessa is helping out her grandmother. They're baking cookies together. Johnny is going for a run, and Layla is golfing with her brother. They're both really active. George is playing baseball with his local team. He's the best player on the team. Oh, and I almost forgot someone. My name is Anna, and I'm going on vacation to Hawaii! I'm packing my bags with my mom tonight. See you when I get back!
