Unit Overview

Student Book

Pre-Reading

The questions can be discussed in groups or as a class, generating students' interest in the topic and activating their background knowledge.

Reading

Fiction and non-fiction passages explore a broad range of relatable and important school subjects. Students can read on their own and/or listen and follow along with the audio track.

Quick Check

This exercise helps ensure that students understand what the pronouns in the reading refer to.

Journal

Unit 9

My Pet Snake

Pre-Reading

- Do you like snakes?
- What are your favorite animals?

My father cuts the lawn on Sundays. I help my father. We make big piles of grass. It is very hot. I go into the house and drink water. Then I go back outside.

What do I find outside? A cute little snake! He is hiding under the grass piles. He wants to rest in a cool spot.

I read a book about snakes. The world's longest snake is almost ten meters long! It is a python. Pythons live in hot places. They can be pets, too.

Reading

My snake is very small. He is now my pet. His name is Shorty. I like him a lot!

Quick Check

Who/What are these? Match.

1. We	• a python
2. He	• my father and I
3. it	• the snake

Find the right words in the journal. KEYWORDS
