1 Discuss the pictures with a partner.

*What can you see? Where are these people?
What's happening?*

2 Do you have a good memory? Who do you remember from your days in high school?

Conversation

1 01 Listen and read.

- Sally: It's great to see everyone again. I can't believe it.
We all look so different now.
- Akiko: Yeah, it's amazing. Oh, there's Liz Sayer. Blonde, in the green dress.
Do you remember her?
- Sally: Yes. She used to sit next to me in class.
- Akiko: Oh yes, that's right. Didn't you use to live near each other?
- Sally: Yes. We're still good friends now, actually.
- Akiko: Oh, and is that James Marston with her?
- Sally: Yes, but I didn't use to speak to him in those days.
- Akiko: You didn't? He was very popular. He used to date Liz, you know.
- Sally: Really? I didn't know that.
- Akiko: Oh, yes. He used to date everyone ... even me!
I wonder what he's doing now.
- Sally: He's studying to be a doctor.
- Akiko: Oh, so do you still know him?
- Sally: Yes, I do. Actually ... we're married.

Skill: Identifying key words

Skills tip

Key words carry the important information. Look for nouns, verbs, and adjectives. Be selective!

Children see the world differently from adults. Do you remember the things you used to believe when you were a child? Here are some funny, but true, stories from around the world.

- When I was young, I used to think that butter came from butterflies! Cristina, Brazil
- Whenever our grandparents used to visit, my brother and I always went to the bus station to meet them. For years we thought they actually lived at the bus station. Marianne, France
- I used to believe that there was a little man inside the refrigerator. It was his job to turn the light on and off. I used to spend hours opening the door, trying to catch him. Ji-Hong, China

- I used to believe that firemen were bad people who started fires in people's homes. Niran, Thailand
- I used to believe I could fly, like Superman. One day I decided to show my friends. I jumped out of my bedroom window ... and spent four months in the hospital. Daisuke, Japan

- My parents said I could be anything I wanted when I grew up. For a long time I wanted to be a train. Toni, Italy
- I used to believe that there was a monster under my bed. At night I used to be really scared. Molly, U.K.
- I used to believe my toys came alive while I was asleep. I used to dress them in warm clothes in the winter, so they wouldn't get cold when they went outside. Lily, U.S.

1  08 Read the stories about things people used to believe when they were children. Which story do you think is funniest?

2 Work with a partner. Retell Molly's story using these key words.

night bed monster scared

Molly used to believe that ...

3 Work with your partner and note the key words in each story. Then retell each story using the key words.

4 What did you use to believe when you were a child? Make a group and tell your classmates.

I used to believe that my mom and dad were aliens from another planet. I thought they used to change shape when I wasn't looking!

Study guide

Writing

1 Write about three things you used to do when you were younger, but don't do anymore. Look at the Study guide to help you.

When I was younger, I used to go swimming in the river near my home with my friends.

Writing about your childhood

- 1 Think of something you used to do when you were younger.
go swimming / play soccer
- 2 Say where you used to do this.
in the river near my home / in the park
- 3 Add some details.
with my friends / on my own

Joe: Hi, Mariana. What a surprise! It's been a long time.

Mariana: You're looking well.

Joe: Thanks. I heard you're a mom now!

Mariana: Yeah, I got married a year ago. This is my son, Lucas.

Joe: He's really cute. Congratulations!

Mariana: Thanks. Anyway, how about you? Didn't you go traveling or something?

Joe: Yeah, I went to Peru for six months and then I spent a year in Europe. I've just come back, actually.

Mariana: That sounds amazing. I've never been abroad!
So, what are your plans now?

Joe: Well, I'm looking for a job, but I haven't found one yet.

Mariana: Do you want to be a babysitter?

Joe: Er ... no thanks!
