Our street

One family, 66 people, and 15 houses – all on the same street!

The Hall family is big – very big – and they all live on the same street, Cotswold Gardens in Gateshead, England.

They have 15 houses. Their ages go from four weeks old (Ellie) to great-grandfather Joe, 76.

Catherine and her husband, George, have six children, and 15 grandchildren. Other relatives – aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, and nieces – all live there, too.

‘Our family is the most important thing,’ says daughter Marganne, 42. ‘We like living in the same street. It’s lovely to have all my family together. At Christmas, or on a birthday, it’s crazy in this street,’ she says. ‘66 people all go to one house!’

Neighbour, Sandra Ross, 41, says ‘It’s great having a big family in the street. We’re all friends.’ Her husband, Dave, agrees, ‘We love living in such a friendly street.’
