Smart CHOICE

Smart learning—your way, every day.

Welcome to Smart Choice Fourth Edition. Here's how you can get more involved in your Smart Choice lessons:

Vocabulary and Language Practice pages help you to develop your English so you can express yourself more confidently and fluently.

Speaking pages in each unit engage you with surveys, debates, and role plays, providing you with support for extended responses in English.

07 Getting personal!

LANGUAGE PRACTICE
Defining and non-defining relative clauses; Reduced relative clauses

VOCABULARY
Character traits

SPEAKING AND WRITING
Asking for and giving personal opinions; A personal application

WARMUP
Who are your favorite people to hang out with? Why?

VOCABULARY

1 PAIR WORK Read the list of traits 1–8 below. Which are the most important to you in your friendships?

Making a Good Impression

Eight character traits that will improve your life

1. Practice sincerity – when you say yes, mean it!
2. Have empathy – allow yourself to see the world from someone else's perspective.
3. Practice honesty – tell the truth; do it gently if you must, but do it.
4. Show consideration – think about what impact your decisions will have on others.
5. Demonstrate loyalty – support the people you care about, even when it's not convenient.
6. Show appreciation – be grateful for the people who support you.
7. Exercise discipline – learn to work hard and finish what you start.
8. Take the initiative – get things started, don't wait for someone else to make it happen.

2 Choose one of the character traits for each example in the conversations below.

1. A I'm not sure who's organizing our group get-together. B Let's do it ourselves! ☐
2. A Kim was the only one to turn in his project on time.
B I heard he stayed up all night. I wish I had his self-control. ☐
3. A I really admire Enrique. Did you hear what he did?
B Yes, he didn't take the new job even though they offered him more money! ☐
4. A Are you sure you don't mind helping? B Of course I'm sure. I like to feel useful. ☐
5. A My mom is in the hospital, and they don't know what is wrong!
B Oh no! I can imagine how worried you are. ☐
6. A I'm not going to lie. I forgot to write my paper. B Well, thank you for telling the truth! ☐
7. A I'm going to set my alarm on vibrate so I don't disturb you.
B You are the best roommate ever! ☐
8. A I think you understand this math question better now.
B Thank you so much for helping me! I'll cook dinner tonight. ☐

3 GROUP WORK Take turns answering these questions. Make up new questions of your own.

- Which person in your family has the most empathy?
- When is it hard for you to exercise discipline?
- How can roommates show consideration?
- How does your workplace or school show appreciation?

54

Unit 4 A little understanding ...

SPEAKING

1 PAIR WORK Ask and answer the following questions.

- Which country are you most interested in?
- What are some of the things people associate with that country?
- Why do you think tourists visit that country? What do they want to see and do?

TASK Make a short speech to persuade people to visit the country you talked about in Activity 1. Tell people about some of the iconic images associated with that country. Make it fun, attractive and exciting.
Optional task: Make a video of your speech and show it to the class.

2 PAIR WORK Plan your script. Make notes and share them with your partner.

What and where is the country?	India. In South Asia. Has borders with ...
Details	Second largest population in the world ...
Why should people visit it? What are some iconic images and locations?	Really fascinating country. Amazing iconic buildings like the Taj Mahal ...

3 Write your script using your notes.

I'm going to tell you about India. It's a really amazing country, located in South Asia.

It has an extremely large population – more than 1.3 billion people, which is the second largest in the world.

It's a totally incredible place, with lots of really iconic places to visit. For example, you should definitely check out the Taj Mahal, which is a very big palace built in the 17th century.

SPEAKING TIP

Make your speech exciting, persuasive and energetic! Use words like very, really, extremely, totally before adjectives.

It's a totally amazing place to visit!

4 GROUP WORK Give your speech to your group. The group will decide which one they most want to visit.

READING

PAIR WORK Discuss these questions with a partner.

- What was your childhood like?
- In what way was it normal?
- In what way was it special?

Kevin Kwan: Turning Intercultural Life into Art

For 25 years, Hollywood did not make a movie with an all-Asian cast. Then a man named Kevin Kwan wrote a book, and made a film called Crazy Rich Asians. The story is about an Asian American economics professor named Rachel, who goes to Singapore to meet her boyfriend's wealthy family. The film was an instant success. It made 238.5 million dollars and became the most successful romantic comedy of the last ten years.

Now Kwan is famous for bringing Asian themes to the big screen. The book has been translated into several languages, and he has published two more. In listening to him talk, it is clear that Kwan's own life has been the inspiration for his witty and affectionate view of wealthy Asian society.

Kwan was born in Singapore, and his early life felt normal in many ways. His group of friends rode around the neighborhood on their bikes, and stole fruit from the neighbors. Then, when he was 11 years old, his family moved to Houston, Texas. In the US, Kwan attended high school, made friends, and had fun, just like others his age. He was not a great student, but he did well in creative writing. Eventually, he moved to New York City, where he became a successful design consultant, with many important clients. However, while he was living in New York, he learned his father was very sick.

Kwan immediately returned to Houston to care for his father, and the two began to recall memories of Singapore. Kwan was fascinated by his father's stories, and they brought back details of his own childhood. He came from a very wealthy family. His grandmother's ancestors started one of the first banks, and his great uncle helped develop a widely used herbal ointment. It was normal for several generations to live together in an elegant home, with grand furnishings and beautiful gardens. Among his friends, there was a girl who received an expensive grand piano as a birthday present. Another friend, who was still too young to drive, owned matching white sports cars.

As he reflected on his family history, Kwan decided to write the memories down as stories, which inspired his novel. These people had lived through Singapore's transition into a world financial center, and he had insight into the details of their lives. In addition, Kwan was also an immigrant, so he could explore the feelings and hopes of other Asian Americans and their children. He used his experiences to write his book, and then film, about immigrants and the worlds they came from. The film's success showed that audiences like seeing the funny, painful, and rewarding stories of families, no matter how crazy or rich they are.

2 Read the article. Choose (✓) the place where he had the following experiences.

Kwan ...	Singapore	Houston	New York
1. ... often spent his free time outside.
2. ... didn't get top grades in school.
3. ... became successful in the art and design community.
4. ... reconnected with his family history.
5. ... spent time with important people.
6. ... had friends with wealthy parents.

3 Read the article again. Are the sentences true (T), or false (F)?

1. Kevin Kwan spent his early childhood in Singapore.	T	F
2. Kwan moved to New York when he was 11.	T	F
3. Kwan had a normal life as a teenager in the U.S.	T	F
4. Kwan's family moved to Houston, Texas, after he graduated from high school.	T	F
5. Kwan's grandmother came from a family of bankers.	T	F

4 Answer the questions about Kwan's life.

- How was Kwan's childhood in Singapore different from a normal childhood?

- What did he choose for his early career? _____
- Why did Kwan move back to Houston? _____
- What did Kwan want to write about? _____

5 GROUP WORK Discuss your responses to the questions below.

- What do you think are the positive and negative things about moving from one country to another?
- What is something that you are proud of about your family?

It's good to have relatives in other countries because you can visit them.

It's hard when you can't see your family because they live in a different country.
